Denbighshire has 10% of children above 80,000.

In North Wales over 20-24, 30-39, 65-69, and 75-79 deaths are expected to rise to 2030, with 1 in 100,000 population.

The North Wales Health Profile in 2011 to 2036 shows a rise.

Almost half of all adults over 16 in North Wales report living with at least one chronic illness.